Cllr David Cordle to liaise with Mr Lee Foster to check the rates for the season for extra cuts when and if required.
Proposal: to accept the payment
Proposed: Cllr David Cordle Seconded: Cllr Kirkup Vote: all in favour
12. War Memorial Quote: to consider
Quote from Collins & Curtis Masonry
Cllr Barwick informed the PC of the masonry repair quote. The cost being £175.00 plus VAT for cutting out the damaged section of the plinth and replace with Portland Stone to match.
Proposal: to contact the contractor and agree for the work to be completed.
Proposal: Cllr Barwick Seconded: Cllr Kirkup Vote: all in favour
13. Pin Mill Bay Management CIC: to report
Cllr Kirkup informed the PC she had been notified by Pin Mill residents that there is a proposal to restore a vintage fire boat at the Pin Mill fixed pontoon and the PBMCIC were considering the proposal. Cllr Kirkup further informed the PC that some of the residents had no objection to the restoration taking place. Cllr Fox queried whether the owners would be living on the boat. Cllr Kirkup will update the PC if more information becomes available.
Cllr Fox informed the PC that the Onderneming Dutch Barge was still being used as a holiday let. This was agreed to be itemised on the next month's agenda for a discussion point.
Cllr David Cordle commented that there was an unwritten agreement that the PC and PBMCIC would email over each other's monthly minutes. Cllr Hammond suggested that the PC should action this agreement. This is to be itemised on next month's agenda for a discussion point.

- 26. a) Grant Requests: to approve
St Andrews’s Church, Chelmondiston – no amount requested. Parish Council discretion.
Clerk informed PC of the recent communication from the National Association of Local Councils and whether it was legal to offer financial assistance to Churches. The clerk’s recommendation is to postpone the decision until clarification can be sought from SALC. The PC agreed with the recommendation. It should be noted that the PC is aware that it cannot make contributions to religious bodies but the grants that have been previously paid to St Andrews have been EXPLICITLY only for the upkeep of the graveyard because that is an open graveyard where anybody local can ask to be buried, not just church members. The PC have therefore seen it as a public amenity.
- b) Chelmondiston & Pin Mill Good Neighbours Scheme £160.00.
Clerk informed PC of a grant request for £160.00 to pay for Public Liability Insurance which is due in May 2018.
