

Changes at Peninsula Community Recycling Centre Shotley Road, Chelmondiston

It is now six months since the parish councils of Chelmondiston and Shotley joined forces with Collins Skip Hire to take on the old Suffolk County Council-run household waste recycling centre and turn it in to a pay-as-you throw community recycling centre.

Usage at the site is currently at a level that will not support the site to stay open and pay its way. To keep the site open changes need to be made to both charges and also opening hours.

From Friday 3 February 2012 the site will be open on Fridays and Saturdays only between 8am and 4.30pm.

There will also be new charges to reflect the actual costs of disposing of waste and running the site.
